CONDITIONS

The agreement defined in this document is entered into with Underwriters on the assumption that the Assured has not experienced any previous threats or incidents related to events which would be insured under this insurance. The Assured has a duty to disclose to insurers any previous threats or incidents and when disclosed Insurers may amend the terms and conditions of the policy and/or the cost of cover. Failure to make such disclosure may allow Insurers to avoid the policy. This is an ongoing responsibility throughout the duration of your policy.

This policy does not apply to the extent any trade or economic sanctions, or other laws or regulations prohibit the Company from providing insurance, including, but not limited to, the payment of any claims.

Definition 1.10 is amended to read as follows: Property shall be buildings (including fixtures, fittings, works of art and other contents), plant and equipment fixed or mobile, (including vessels and aircraft), bloodstock and livestock, computer systems owned, controlled or leased by the Assured or an Insured Person for which the Assured or Insured Person is legally liable.

Definition 1.6. is amended to read as follows: Hijack shall be the attempted or actual illegal holding under duress, for a period in excess of one (1) hour, of an Insured Person whilst travelling in or on any aircraft, motor vehicle, railroad train or waterborne vessel or any other form of public or private transport.

Condition 3.12 is added to the GAIC Corporate Protection Insurance form;

This Policy is primary except when it is expressly stated to be excess over any other insurance. However, with respect to any Insured Loss resulting from an Extortion [Definition 1.3(iii) and (iv)], this Policy will be excess over any other valid and collectible insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent, or on any other basis, available to the Assured or any Insured Person which also covers such Insured Loss. If this Policy and any other insurance available to the Assured or any Insured Person(s) apply to an Insured Event on the same basis, whether primary or excess, then coverage under this Policy shall apply up to the amount of the deductible(s) of the other valid and collectible insurance. With respect to any amounts in excess of such deductible(s), the Company shall not be liable under this Policy for a greater proportion of any Insured Loss than the applicable Limit of Liability under this Policy bears to the total Limits of Liability of all valid and collectible insurance available to the Assured and any Insured Persons for such Insured Loss.

Exclusion 4.4 (i) is amended to read as follows: (i) a Detention which is for a period of less than one (1) hour;

All the terms and conditions as per Policy Wording as described in the Forms of this Schedule

 - (ii) before providing further information about the affected Assured's Products.
- 1.5 Detention shall be the holding under duress in the Territory specified in item 5. of the Schedule of an Insured Person for whatever reason and whether by authorities legally constituted in the place of custody or by others. With respect to salary payments only, Underwriters' liability shall be for a period of 72 months or until 60 days after the date on which the Detention ceases, whichever shall first occur.

Terrorist Risk Insurance Act Endorsement

as amended under the Terrorism Risk Insurance Program Reauthorization Act of 2007 ("TRIPRA")

TRIA Charge:

On November 26, 2002, the President of the United States signed into law the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the "Act"). You should know that, effective November 26, 2002, under your existing coverage, any losses caused by certified acts of terrorism would be partially reimbursed by the United States under a formula established by federal law. Under this formula, the United States pays 85% of covered terrorism losses exceeding the statutorily established deductible paid by the insurance company providing the coverage.

Please note that this Certificate does not contain an exclusion that specifically excludes coverage for certified acts of terrorism under the Act. The portion of your annual premium that is attributable to coverage for acts of terrorism is 1%. There is a separate line item designating the premium charge for this coverage above.

If you do not wish to elect to purchase coverage for Acts of Terrorism, as defined by the Act, we must receive written notification of such desire and an exclusion for such coverage will be added to your Policy. If you have any questions regarding this notice, the Act, or the impact of the Act on your policy please do not hesitate to contact SCR.
